Incentive-Modules

Have you ever considered putting your seminar break times to good use instead of just hanging around at the buffet table? We have... and then we took our idea and, with the help of our partner Retter Events, we created a new, active break-time programme with team building at the forefront.

Or maybe you prefer the idea of your boss cooking for you? If so, then our Engelreich show kitchen provides the perfect location.

Working in cooperation with our partners, our Events Network team is happy to take over the organisational side of things. We are your one-stop shop and you will have just one contact person for your entire event with us.

You can't find quite what you are looking for? No problem, we've always got something up our sleeve and aim to meet your individual needs... just let us know what they are!

Happy browsing!

The Meeting of Styrian specialities

---

Your schedule won't allow for a trip to visit Southern Styria? No problem, we can bring the "Tuscany of Styria" to you at the Hotel Weitzer! You can enjoy the finest wines without needing to leave the hotel because a traditional Styrian evening is on the agenda including wine tasting and local speciality, breaded chicken, to round things off.

The event begins with a wine tasting session and commentary (5 sample – 3 x white, 1 x Schilcher, 1 x red) plus a Styrian snack. Preserving jars filled with typically Styrian spreads such as pumpkin seed and curd cheese or spicy Liptauer are placed directly on the tables. In addition to this there is a basket of crusty brown bread so guests can select the spread of their choice.

This is followed by a four-course Styrian meal. Guests are treated to a starter of Styrian tapas, one of our head chef's specialties. Tapas are small appetizers which are especially popular in Spain and are often eaten standing up in wine bar. Our head chef's motto is: A new take on "tried and tested". See below for a menu plan to get things rolling:

Styrian tapas starter

Vulcano dry-cured ham with pickled pumpkin chutney

Smoked river trout with horseradish curd cheese

Styrian sheep's cheese with marinated rocket

Cream of pumpkin soup with toasted pumpkin seeds

Styrian breaded chicken

served with potato and cucumber salad with pumpkin seed oil dressing

Schilcher wine crème dessert with sponge fingers

Menu price incl. snack: € 28,00

Presentation Package: € 180,00

Drinks are charged according to consumption. As an event-appropriate aperitif we recommend a Styrian selection with Schilcher champagne, Muskateller sparkling wine and cloudy natural apple juice from local fruit farmers.

Can be booked at the Hotel Weitzer – on request and according to availability.

Min. 15 and max. 80 participants

A myriad of Styrian mustard and vinegar

In keeping with the motto “A myriad of Styrian mustard and vinegar” you start with a relaxed get2gether in our traditional Austrian stand-up bar and a little bite to eat: Mini bread rolls filled with our finest treats. Choose from pork liver sausage, Waldviertel meatloaf, cotechino or tail of rump and the icing on the cake – homemade mustard in four different varieties. And don’t forget the all-important little extras: Mustard gherkins, pickled gherkins, jalapenos... and much more.

You can toast your excellent choice of outing with a glass of cava or farm-produced fruit juice and then, reinvigorated, you head off to vinegar manufacturer Pölzer.

1. Factory tour

Take a tour of the whole business with Mag. Tino Pölzer, who also happens to be Graz’s Latvian Honorary Consul. He will introduce you to the secrets of producing organic apple vinegar and mustard and explain the manufacturing process and the machinery.

Duration: 60 minutes

2. Tasting

A tasting of all products including commentary then takes place in the demonstration room. Taste and savour to your heart’s content.

3. Finale

After all of that it is time to enjoy some fine dining. In the cosy parlour you and your guests will be served a Styrian buffet with the region’s finest ham, sausage and cheese specialities.

You and your guests will arrive back in Graz at approximately 11 pm where you might like to continue the “team building” exercises at the hotel bar...

Ommm ... a Breath of Energy

Welcome, or as they say in India, “Namaste” to a very special way to spend your break time. Yoga – an Indian philosophical teaching is neither sport nor religion, but rather training for the body and soul. Revitalising sequences of movements, fluid breathing and deep concentration flow together to create active meditation. The result? Physical and mental strength, flexibility and contentment.

Business.Yoga is specially designed for seminar breaks, but can also take place before or after the seminar. Give it a try and let your seminar guests experience new energy and concentration. Yoga harmonises body, mind and breathing as well as increasing strength, endurance and flexibility. Business.YOGA uses special energising yoga and breathing exercises which also improve concentration, helping participants to feel refreshed and receptive again in the shortest possible time.

Learn and practice breathing exercises to help recharge your batteries and asanas (posture exercises) to reopen your energy channels.

Ports clothing? There's no need – just take off your shoes and you can get started.

Duration: approx. 20 to 40 minutes (by arrangement)

Participants: ca. 10 to max. 50 persons

Price: € 336,00 incl. VAT, delivery and collection

Yoga mats are provided for small groups. For larger groups they are available for hire (not included in the package price).

Your Coach: Mag. (FH) Martina Schlagbauer

...studied Health Management at the FH Joanneum – University of Applied Sciences. As a freelance Vital Coach, certified, trained yoga teacher and personal trainer at M.A.N.D.U Graz she supervises and motivates clients on their path to achieving all-round health and well-being.
